AMC Worcester Chapter Winter Hiking Gear List
Track 1 – Beginner to Intermediate Gear List

Feet

* Boots - Insulated/waterproof – (insulation and temperature rating to zero degrees or below 0 is important if goal is to continue into higher elevation hikes or the White Mountains)

  * Liner socks - synthetic (extra pair recommended)
  * Hiking socks - wool or synthetic – 2 pairs (one to wear and one as back-up)
  * Gaiters – knee high

Tops (no cotton!)

* Base layer – long or short sleeve, synthetic/wicking

  * Mid-layer – long or short sleeve, wool or wool/synthetic blend. (feel free to bring extra)
  * Outer layer – light-weight fleece

  * Insulating layer – down or fiber parker (“puffy jacket” with hood if possible).

  * Shell – wind/waterproof breathable layer

Bottoms (no cotton!)

* Base layer - synthetic or wool (wear or pack based on temps and conditions)

  * Mid-layer -- light weight fleece or warm synthetic

  * Shell - wind/waterproof breathable pants (full side zip highly recommended)

Head and Hands

* 2 Hats - fleece or wool (wear one/pack one)

  * Neck Gaiter – synthetic or fleece

  * Gloves – synthetic liners, fleece, and/or wool (No Leather!) (extra pair recommended)

  * Mittens – wind/waterproof (extra pair recommended) to slip over liners

  * Sunglasses

Additional Gear

* Backpack - big enough to fit all of your gear (use stuff sacks to organize gear)

  * Pack cover and pack liner (plastic compactor bag works well)
* Microspikes – some kind of non-snowshoe foot traction

Z* Snowshoes – designed for flat to rolling terrain (adjust/try on at home before the hike)

Z* Trekking poles - (flick-lock style recommended) – snow basket on bottom

* Water Bottle and Water Bottle Holders – insulated (camelbacks will freeze in the winter)

* Personal first aid kit and toiletry articles (personal meds)

* Whistle

* Headlamp (check batteries before hike)

* Map of hiking area (remember to leave copy and hiking itinerary at home)

Chapstick and sunscreen (20+SPF)

Hand Warmers (activate at the beginning of the hike)

Small Cell Foam Pad (to sit on)

“*” Denotes required items

"Z” Denotes items recommended for rental before purchase or borrow from a friend